Dear Mr. Hampton:

Upon returning to my office from a short visit down South, your letter of 28 March has been brought to my attention.

I well remember sitting next to you at the President's luncheon for Adenauer, and I have a very pleasant memory of our discussion. I hope we will soon have the occasion to meet again.

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Sir:

The writer was on your left at The White House luncheon for Dr. Konrad Adenauer, and has your place-card.

Having been an admirer of you and your late brother, it was a real privilege to meet and talk with you.

President Eisenhower was most gracious in having us, the Trustees, as his guests that day, and the whole event was a most delightful affair.

Very truly yours,

ESH/ml
